

Posterprinting and delivery service

My name is \(Dr\) A\(njo\) Elgersma. After a university career, I work as a self-employed independent scientist and started an enterprise 'Anjo Elgersma' (SME) that offers labour and services, e.g. scientific input for collaborative research and writing of publications, lectures, consultancies, editing, organisational assistance, etcetera.

Professional posterservice for EGF 2025 in Reading

As a commercial service for the upcoming EGF meeting I can offer help to authors of posters in:

- printing of your poster A0 (80 x 120 cm, full-colour satinated 150 g paper) including editorial check (typography, style, contents), delivery to the conference site and putting up your poster to the appropriate poster board: € 45,- your benefits: no need to bring it yourself, no risk of forgetting or losing it, no damage risk during travel, no luggage fee on the flight. Your poster will be displayed on time, even if you are delayed
- home delivery of your poster by post after the meeting: price depends on country your benefits: no fuss in taking down your poster, no risk of damage or loss during travel, no luggage fee on the flight; your poster will continue to be on display even if you leave before the end of the conference

How to order?

If this quotation is of interest to you, please contact me at EGFposterservice@gmail.com and indicate:
